LIFELINE TRAINING:
There is increasing demand from Australian organisations to deliver training that builds the resilience of their employees. By focusing on mental health and wellbeing you will help managers and staff know how to prevent, identify, and respond to mental health issues in the workplace. Lifeline's workplace training courses aim to increase employee engagement, safeguard employee mental health, and improve wellbeing. When employees thrive, so do businesses.

START THE CONVERSATION TRAINING SESSION:
START THE CONVERSATION is perfect for fostering mental health awareness in your workplace or community. While reaching out beyond 'Are you ok?' might seem daunting, the aim of this presentation is to enhance skills and build confidence to support someone in distress. Dive into Lifeline Harbour to Hawksbury Sydney's START THE CONVERSATION session. In this dynamic hour, your team will unlock:
- The confidence to recognise crisis in others
- Techniques to start conversations that truly matter
- The importance of listening without judgement
- Why self-care is crucial to supporting others

Terms and conditions apply for Workplace Training. Sessions must be booked within 12 months of the event date. Please phone Lifeline H2HS to discuss your Workplace Training requirements.
